SEARCHES BY FUNCTION

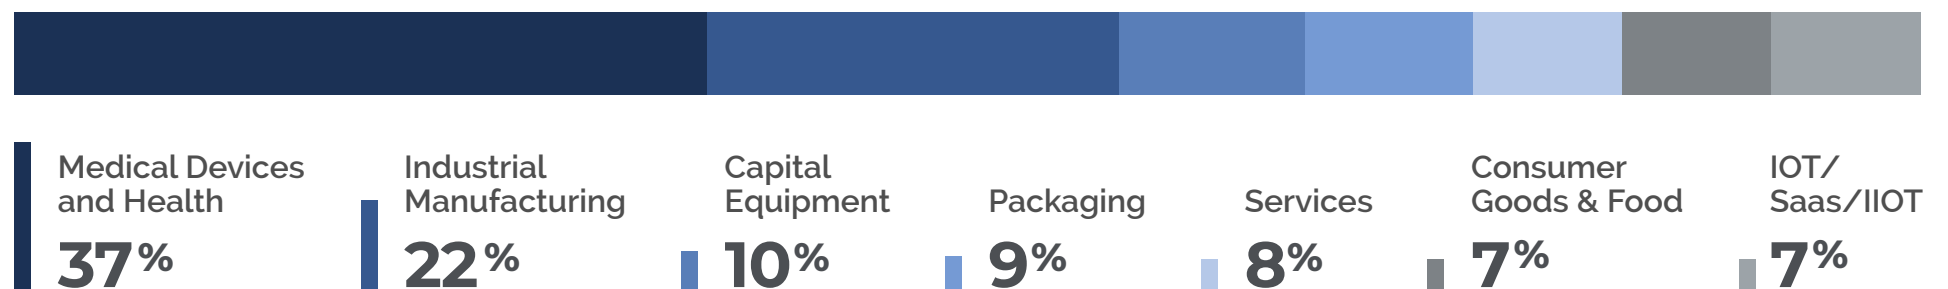

I took over a business unit that the parent company wanted to close down. I retained DSML to find the right people to assist in growing the business in the US and Canada. Working with DSML was very productive and pleasant. We recruited the right people and managed to grow even more than expected.

My organization has recently used DSML to recruit for three key roles in Chicago. From our initial meeting through to appointment DSML's attention to detail, communication, thoughtful approach and pro-activity has been impressive and effective. We look forward to a long and successful relationship as we continue to build our USA team.
